BURGLAR
AT LARGE

Board of Health Inspector Cook this morning visited the police station and endeavored to identify one of a couple of Hawaiians, Kāmika and Kama, as the man who played the burglar act in his place on Saturday night last.

Cook looked at one and then at the other with no sign of recognizing either, and then he carefully examined each for scars or wounds which he himself might have inflicted when he was wrestling and fighting with the alleged intruder. He failed to establish any connection between either man and the fellow charged with breaking into his house, and, of course, both suspects were allowed to go about their business.

Cook had a fight with a burglar at his home on Artesian street on Saturday night. He mauled the burglar considerably, leaving bloodstains on the floor. He is sure the intruder was a Hawaiian.

WALK TO HALEIWA

Walking is now the rage. St. Clair Biddgood, coming in on the crest of the wave of enthusiasm engendered by the Sunday walkingfest, has put up a handsome silver cup trophy for the winner of a walking race between Honolulu and the Haleiwa hotel, Wai-anae.

Details have not yet been arranged.
They will probably be fixed this afternoon.

The idea is to have the great contest come off soon after the mile walking contest at Kapiolani park, or wherever it is held on the third Sunday in January.

A walk from Honolulu, probably starting from the postoffice, or the Capitol, or Gunst-Eakin's cigar store, or any other well-known establishment, will attract an immense amount of interest.

Biddgood has a long head. He will probably give Wichman the contract for the silver cup, but that is incidental; the main point is that he will give a silver cup. He was in the city from the wilderness this morning and he waxed enthusiastic over walking in general and spread himself on the records as standing good for the finest silver cup that has been seen here for a long time.

In regard to the walking race on the third Sunday in January at Kapiolani park, or wherever the caucus arranges, it may be said that there is considerable discussion, but the four firsts in Sunday's open race, as yesterday.

The candy season is on and the Palm Cafe has the largest stock of Gunther's imported chocolate and bonbons in the city. The factory on Union street turns out tons of the finest chocolate and candies of the cheaper varieties every week. Sunday schools, day schools and churches supplied.

famous one and the reproduction very good.

solutely impossible for a third party

FUNNY BUSINESS OVER ETHEL ZANE

Captain Rosehill was to have taken the schooner Ethel Zane out of this port for the Sound, but it seems that the owners are not willing to pay a captain his wages and his fare back to Honolulu, preferring to get a man who will take the vessel up to the coast and look after getting home on his own account.

Rosehill, therefore, although he is the best man available for the position, will not go out as captain of the schooner.

The latest bark development is that Peterson, formerly mate of the W. B.
Flint, and who was recommended as subject to discharge on account of intemperate habits, is to take her up.

Peterson has promised to be good.
The vessel was to have sailed Saturday, but there came the order to furnigate her, for some reason, nobody knows why, and she is furnigated. Rosehill very wisely refused to take the Zane to her destination unless he was properly treated.

day exclusively reported in The Star, Sullivan, Ayres, Cheatham and Den-sham and a few more, will be in it.

When it comes to the Haleiwa walking contest it is safe to say that the track will be alive with automobiles and rigs and spectators and there will be such a windup at Haleiwa as has been seldom seen.

The probabilities are that those who have already made themselves famous in the Sunday race and those who will enter the race on the third Sunday in January will race to Haleiwa.

Ayres has an idea that he will win anything he undertakes hereafter in the walking line, and he has considerable reason for so believing, but there is Jack Denham to be reckoned with, to say nothing of Sullivan and Cheatham and whoever else may qualify.

ANOTHER GOODHUE

In the article published in The Star yesterday in which it was announced that Dr. E. S. Goodhue had been offered and had accepted the appointment as a Federal delegate to the Leprosy conference to be held in Bergen, Norway, next summer, it was stated that Dr. Goodhue was stationed in the Territorial service at the Molokai Settlement. This was a mistake. Dr.
Goodhue's home is at Honolulu, Kona, Hawaii, and he has been greatly interested in the subject of leprosy for some time. He is well-known to Star readers for literary contributions. The physician on Molokai is Dr. W. J.
Goodhue.

Carlos A. Long, as trustee for J. K.
Sumner et al, is suing Robert W. and Mary K. Davis for the foreclosure of a mortgage on the lands of Mokapu, given to secure a note for $2500 in 1902.
The conditions of the document are alleged to have been violated through the failure to pay the interest of seven per cent, due semi-annually.

Our Holiday GOODS

Our stock of HOLIDAY GOODS was never quite so choice or so complete as it is this season. We have drawn heavily upon the large manufacturing houses of Europe, America and the Orient, and are prepared to show you values such as you have never seen before.

We buy direct, and get the lowest prices on our goods, with discount for cash; and we can afford to sell them at a small profit because they sell FAST that way.
